Process & Product Patents
Can’t Patent Your Widget? Patent a Method!
An Idea to Asset Seminar

With Susan Stone Rosenfield and Bruce Dahl of Fennemore Craig, Phoenix

April 20, 2016
12:00 PM – 1:00 PM
Electrical and Computer Engineering
Room 530

Do you have research that you’re thinking of patenting? What kind of patent would best suit your invention?

Join us for a seminar led by patent attorneys Susan Stone Rosenfield and Bruce Dahl of Fennemore Craig, Phoenix. Our discussion will focus on the differences between device and method patents, including computer-implemented processes. We will also discuss various types of patent claims, and the advantages of well-formulated patent language.

Ms. Rosenfield is an AV Preeminent Peer Review Rated attorney, and focuses her practice on all aspects of intellectual property, including the adoption, defense and enforcement of patent, trademark, copyright and trade secret rights.

Mr. Dahl is the managing director of the firm’s Denver office and the chair of the firm’s intellectual property practice group. He has extensive experience in all aspects of intellectual property law, including U.S. and foreign patent prosecution, patent infringement studies, designaround efforts, and agreements relating to intellectual property.

Lunch will be provided at 11:45 for all who RSVP in advance.

RSVP @

Questions?
Contact Linda Portillo
520-626-2303
lindav@tla.arizona.edu