

Innovate for Impact:

Uniting Voices for Societal Resilience and Social Impact

Social Democracy

Healthcare
Inequalities

Environment

Hunger & Food
Sustainability

AI & Technology
Impact

Join us for a groundbreaking panel discussion where diverse leaders will share insights and strategies for sustaining social innovation and maximizing its impact for our communities.

Delve into cross-sector collaboration's pivotal role in driving and implementing resilient solutions to wicked problems.

Following the panel, network and exchange ideas over light refreshments in an inviting atmosphere fostering transformative collaborations.

Tuesday, April 2

3:00 - 5:00pm

ENR2 S107: Agnese Nelms Haury Lecture Hall

Laura López-Hoffman, School of Natural Resources and the Environment

Theresa Crimmins, School of Natural Resources and the Environment, USA National Phenology Network

Lewis Humphreys, Tech Launch Arizona

For more information and to register go to:

<https://bit.ly/UA-innovate-for-impact>

Sponsored by:

TECH LAUNCH
ARIZONA

RESEARCH, INNOVATION & IMPACT
Societal Impact