Flourish HERE

An Unconference Experience Focused on Women in STEM

October 1, 2019
1:00 - 5:30 PM
Environment and Natural Resources Building 2, Room S107

Flourish HERE is a half-day unconference exploring the roles and opportunities for STEM-oriented women and allies to engage in the Tucson innovation ecosystem.

From inventorship to mentorship and from teaming to funding, we will explore, connect and support one another to advance the impact of the incredible people and inventions of the University of Arizona.
